

SCHEDULED CAREER FAIRS & OPEN HOUSES

(Metro Washington/Baltimore – MidAtlantic Area)

August 1, 2010

A word of caution: check with both the sponsor and the hosting facility for Career Fairs and Open Houses before leaving home. Also, see Special Notes at the end of the listing for additional sponsors of Job Fairs across the nation and other relevant career and search web listings. This listing is a “pay it forward” contribution of my firm, D&A Industries, Ltd. When attending Career Fairs be sure to bring plenty of resumes, more than you plan to distribute. When attending an Open House be sure to bring a half-dozen copies of your resume. Please feel free to forward this listing to others you feel can benefit from the information and ability to plan ahead.

Special notes:

A series of particularly beneficial websites, offered by Steve Gallison, Director, and his staff at Professional Outplacement Assistance Center, Columbia, Maryland include:

www.dllr.state.md.us/poac for links to downloadable websites for recruiters, agencies, and employers.
www.dllr.state.md.us/poac/metalist for a major (mega) list of employers in the region. POAC's
www.dllr.state.md.us/poac/dir features the most active employers in the area. POAC's list also includes:

Federal Jobs and related information about federal programs at <http://opm.gov/>, and Gallison points out that <http://Govexec.com> will provide excellent insights into the Federal Government. For Disabilities and Employment Issues Gallison recommends: <http://www.dol.gov/odep/>.

For Salary and Negotiations information, http://salary.com/salary/layoutscripts/sall\_display.asp; and www.shapironegotiations.com/Resources/Newsletters.cfm. Also, <http://drewsoftware.com/Download.html>; <http://queendom.com/test/>; and www.career-design/merchant/CareerChange.htm.

Here are some the more popular sites for specific job search, career fairs, and career management information:

For Job Seekers looking for pertinent, relevant terms for their resumes you might visit the Occupational Information Network's database of job descriptions at <http://online.onetcenter.org/help/online/tips>. There are descriptive terms for most of the standard career fields.

For companies that require security clearances it is strongly recommended that the following format be incorporated into your resume. In your "Heading" (your name, street address, city and telephone) be sure to show your e-mail address and your security clearance immediately below. These are the first two items the recruiter and the company want to know whether at a job fair, when pulling your resume off the web or when you send your resume electronically, by fax or snail-mail.

Check www.InformationCareers.com for IT opportunities outside of the areas requiring security clearances. More and more opportunities are being identified in Competitive Marketing, Information Management and Knowledge Management fields. Currently those without clearances will need to show previously held positions that required a clearance. Check www.IntelligenceCareers.com for positions listings. The latest edition to this family of websites is www.ThinkingJobs.com, a site for opportunities that do not require a security clearance.

Another excellent resource for the Job Seeker is www.careerxroads.com for the quality information on web sites, and also for niche sites and the Nonprofit arena. When looking at Nonprofits and you require financial information go to www.guidestar.org.

A site for Technology Professionals that lists technical groups and their meetings, by geographic or subject area is www.JobCircle.com/public/events.

A site for nonprofits, their management, general data and salary information is BoardSource, formerly the National Center for Nonprofit Boards, is www.boardsource.org.

Check out the web site www.idealists.org for quality information and periodic Job Fairs for the Nonprofit arena usually scheduled with area colleges and universities. You can also post your resume with this site.

For Job seekers both in and outside the Washington/Baltimore area that are looking for listings outside the mid-Atlantic area, check the listed career fair providers for the listings of their scheduled career fairs across the US.

Websites of Career Fair Providers for individuals holding US Security Clearances:

ClearanceJobs.com www.ClearanceJobs.com is a Dice Holdings Company web site for individuals holding active clearances with DoD, DoE, NRC and NSA. Individuals can post their resume as well as look at posted positions calling for cleared personnel. The search for positions can be by state if desired. DICE is the one niche site that is still having great success in connecting IT job seekers with employers.

ClearedJobs.net www.clearedjobs.net offers the cleared professional opportunities to meet those employers with cleared positions across the nation and overseas. Offers Job and resume postings, advance notice of career fairs and topic appropriate free seminars at each career fair. Like the other top career fair providers perspective attendees are encouraged to pre-register.

CorporateGray.com www.corporate-gray.com Listings of Military Career Fairs plus Resume hosting and much more for the job seeker. This site supports all aspects of the military's needs and efforts in Job Search, with critical links to the rest of the military community's efforts in Job Search. Free resume postings for all military and spouses, free postings by employers. The Corporate Gray Career Fairs offer the balance between the DoD contractors that require security clearances and employers who do not require clearances. Always check their web site or the newspaper ads ahead of the scheduled event for specific free seminars that are always on target.

Civilianjobs.com www.civilianjobs.com. Web site for transitioning military and spouses offers free online recruiting. Caution here, there are portions of this web site that are not free.

DefenseCareers.com www.defensecareers.com. Producer of Job Fairs for individuals with Security Clearances and those with unique skills where because of skill sets possessed the company will sponsor the individual while obtaining clearance for individual.

IntelligenceCareers.com. www.IntelligenceCareers.com and its partner sites offer resources and programs for those with clearances and who are interested in either connecting with the federal sector or with a contractor to the federal sector. This group periodically offers a one-day seminar on securing opportunities with DoD contractors and other organizations holding security clearance required positions. It also provides a guide to the value of the resume (of individuals holding a clearance) in the Intelligence Community upon request. The requestor must hold a currently valid clearance, Secret or higher to ask for this free service. (See IntelligenceCareers above for more detail.)

Military Stars www.MilitaryStars.com. A relatively newcomer focused to the military. Offers career fairs periodically plus other services for separating military personnel.

TransitionCareers.com www.transitionscareers.com. Relative new URL focusing on the military, usually offering the career fairs on military installations but not always. Web site offers job board and other useful resources for those in the search mode. Career Fairs are restricted to separating military and others with Security Clearance. When on military installations required appropriate ID for non active duty military.

Sites Supporting the Military in Transition:

Cinhouse.com www.cinhouse.com. The new web portal for military wives, claims to be the largest Military Spouse Job Network offering information on Health, Fitness, Finances, Base Communities and selection of branch of service for more focus. Not much on Job Search, the tools, techniques or resources. Quality of information less than expected. May develop more via the Chat Room.

Lucas Group Hiring Conferences www.bradley-morris.com This is an organization that charges both the job seeker and the client for services. This is not a provider of career fairs but rather a two-day program for separating military and employers seeking to hire military.

MilitaryCandidates.com www.militarycandidates.com. Web site for military personnel seeking opportunities outside the military and for employers seeking military experience.

MilitaryHire.com www.MilitaryHire.com. A web site for transitioning and former military. Offers a free job board for veterans.

Military Officers Association of America www.moaa.org is the leading officer assistance web site for separating and retiring officers of all services. Sponsors the two largest annual career fairs with free seminars for military and military focused participants. This organization is a full service organization for its members.

NCOA www.ncoausa.org Congressionally chartered to support current and former military enlisted and their families in transition and post transition efforts. Affiliated with www.MilitaryJobWorld.com to provide online transition information.

RME.org www.RME.org. Regional Military Employment Program for Members Only of Tidewater area employers and Military Transition and Employment offices. Offers posting of opportunities for separating military. Posting via jobsearch@ffscnorva.navy.mil. Web site: www.ffscnorva.navy.mil.

Troops to Teachers www.proudtoserveagain.com the web site for transitioning military interested in pursuing teaching positions within the fifty states. Each state has its own representative who explains the requirements including certifications required and timing requirements.

VetJobs.com www.vetjobs.com, is the largest military related job board on the Internet.

VetJobs is ranked as one of the very top job boards while at the same time being a niche job board. It is supported by and partially owned by the VFW, and endorsed by VVA, Naval Reserve Association, Veterans of Modern Warfare, and others. Workforce Magazine ranks it among its leading job boards, as does AIRS. Over 3,000 employers use VetJobs, and candidates do not have to register to view jobs or apply, they can apply directly. Lists of upcoming Job/Career Fairs are found in VetJobs monthly newsletter. This site is free to veterans, transitioning military and their family members. With its latest version of its web site in August it now has 200,000+ visitors each month. This is a strong positive for military and former military as the market tightens considerably and the media is beginning to give greater recognition of the values to employers in hiring former military.

Websites of Career Fair Providers for individuals holding or eligible for US Security Clearance:

CorporateGray.com www.corporate-gray.com Listings of Military Career Fairs plus Resume hosting and much more for the job seeker. This site supports all aspects of the military's needs and efforts in Job Search, with critical links to the rest of the military community's efforts in Job Search. Free resume postings for all military and spouses, free postings by employers. The Corporate Gray Career Fairs offer the balance between the DoD contractors that require security clearances and employers who do not require clearances. Always check their web site or the newspaper ads ahead of the scheduled event for specific free seminars that are always on target.

TargetedJobfairs.com www.targetedjobfairs.com offers both career fairs for cleared professionals and US citizens eligible for clearance who hold a degree or relevant military experience.

TechExpoUSA.com www.TechExpoUSA.com producer of Job Fairs and Corporate Open Houses calling for experienced individuals with Active Security Clearances. Federal Research Service. www.fedjobs.com. The organization has been around since 1974, and continues to be the premier source of the most complete and current job listings, by agency, location and career field. The publication is Federal Career Opportunities. FRS offers a free monthly newsletter, coaching and counseling as well as resume service and critique, and is the only Federal Jobs Database outside of the Government. Ms. Harris presents at the Corporate Gray Job Fairs, speaking on How to Work Job Fairs and Job Search. Federal Research Service can be reached at 800-822-5027 and 703-914-JOBS as well as by email at info@fedjobs.com.

I Got the Job.net www.IGotTheJob.net. Lily Whiteman, another local author and federal employee offers the services of coach and lecturer as well as columnist and guest speaker. Her book on job search in the federal sector is, "How to Land a Top-Paying Federal Job," was published in September 2008. Her website is the vehicle to connect with Ms. Whiteman.

Partnering for Success. www.myfederalresume.com. Known as "the Federal Resume Guru," Ms. Edwards offers federal and private sector resume and cover letter service, including expedited service. Fee schedule is online. She offers 25 years federal experience, 15 in HR and is the creator and facilitator of the Certified Federal Resume Writer certification program. Ms. Edwards can be contacted at 800-611-3234, and the email address is contact@myfederalresume.com.

The Diversa Group. www.diversagroup.com, offers articles on military transition to the private sector, the entrepreneurial, leadership and internships. Services include resume and job search support. Derrick Dortch, The Diversa Group's President, is a weekly commentator on the Washington Post's online webinars. Contact information includes 1-877-854-0717, 202-448-9067 for DC, and the email is info@diversagroup.com.

The Resume Place. www.resume-place.com. Kathryn Troutman's web site offers a large variety of services that include federal resume writing, books, training, resources that include a blog, free newsletters, a free weekly one-hour online class, and presentations. You must register for blog, newsletters and online class. See the web site for details. The Resume Place can be contacted at 800 480-8265 or 410-744-4324. Kathryn Troutman's latest book is "Ten Steps to a Federal Job," 2nd Edition, published in January 2009.

TransitionAdvantage. www.transitionadvantage.com. The web site of Karol Taylor and Janet Ruck, both retired federal employees who are trainers, presenters and certified coaches who offer resume and job services coaching. Their web site spells out the price for a federal resume that is based on the General Schedule Grade one is seeking. All of their coaches are certified and have federal experience in their backgrounds. Taylor can be contacted at 410-447-2923, and Ruck at 410-992-7917. These two can also be reached at myfederal@transitionadvantage.com. Their book, "Guide to American's Federal Jobs" was published in June 2009. It is the only book on federal job search that tells the reader to target the search to be most effective and save time.

GovLoop. www.govloop.com is relatively new website for those interested in connecting within the federal sector, either to join or move to a new agency or department, www.govloop.com identifies itself as a social network for Government. The site offers discussions, blogs, events, articles and directories as well as federal job listings and virtual job fairs.

ClearedJobs.com. www.clearedjobs.com. This site is primarily for the job seeker but is also used by recruiters, both in the Government and outside. The site matches job seekers who hold active or current DoD, DoE and State Department security clearances with opportunities in the federal sector. The job seeker, after registering can search by key word, by location and more. Offers articles and identifies "hot" industries and positions as well as employers who have contracts with the noted federal organizations above.

IntelligenceCareers.com www.intelligencecareers.com. Producer of Job Expos calling for experienced individuals with Security Clearances. Excellent series of websites for cleared individuals. Offers periodic one-day seminars for professionals seeking DoD contractor connections.

Other useful resources for the seeker of federal employment include the several government weekly newspapers: Federal Times, www.federaltimes.com; Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps Times, all at ".com." The value of these newspapers, even the free online aspects, gives you names, organizations and activities that can be followed up on for further dialog or adding substantive content to communications. The Washington Post, however, is another source and another consideration..

To a lesser extent the Washington and Baltimore Business Journals, www.washington.bizjournal.com; www.baltimore.bizjournal.com; and Washington Technology, <http://washingtontechnology.com> in their free side have valuable articles on the federal sector periodically, and always have articles on Government contractors.
